The Whitemarsh Foundation

The Whitemarsh Foundation was founded in 2001 with a mission dedicated to the preservation, conservation and stewardship of the Whitemarsh Valley.

In the ensuing years, the Foundation raised $26 million and completed two of its three goals by purchasing and protecting in perpetuity nearly 200 acres of Erdenheim Farm.

We begin our second decade working to achieve our final goal: stewardship of the land. The construction of the 14-acre Dixon Meadow Preserve at the corner of Thomas and Flourtown Roads marks our first major undertaking in that endeavor.

We hope you'll join us on September 21 for golf and good company, and to help launch the Foundation into its second decade.
